THE MOM
A MEMOIR

“You’re killing me, Duffy. Killing me,” the mom always said.

“A brilliant writer transcends the tragic and turns this powerful, raw, heartfelt story into the finest art.” (James Brown)

“a spectacular talent at crafting complex, believable Characters.” (Wall Street Journal)

“a honed intelligence, unfaltering, unflinching, piercing.” (New York Times)

“a master at capturing the helplessness of humans ... with tough written all over them.” (Los Angeles Times)

“A searing memoir [that] lets everyday life pass before our eyes ... how extraordinary are its traumas and victories.” (Nicholas Birns)
